Choose a course...

Please clearly mark your selections with an 'x' in the circles provided

Homeopathy UK: The study of our homeopathy home study course is spread over a nominal, but flexible, two year period after which you will join the UK School of Homeopathy attendance course.

Homeopathy International: The study of our homeopathy home study course is spread over a nominal, but flexible, four year period. The course is supplemented with a yearly seven day UK summer school and clinical training options.

Study periods: When you enrol on one of our courses you are always given twice as much time to complete the course than is required, just in case other things get in the way of your study.

Terms & conditions: For details of cancellation, refunds and re-enrolment policy please view the Terms & Conditions on our website : http://www.alternative-training.com/terms_and_conditions

- ENROLMENTS
As part of our commitment to flexibility, we give students twice as much time as required to complete the courses. For every year long course you are given two years study time. Enrolment starts from the time of payment. After this period you can extend your study time by a further 12 months. The re-enrolment fee for Sept 08/09 is £40 for Nutrition, Anatomy & Physiology and Pathology & Disease and £95 for Homeopathy.
